The Intercontinental Aphrodite Hills is one of Cyprus' most luxurious and elegant resorts. Uniquely and scenically set on a stunning plateau overlooking the legendary Aphrodite's Rock amidst the glittering blue Mediterranean Sea and within the award-winning Aphrodite Hill development, the resort offers guests a lifestyle built on discovery, enchantment, antiquity, culture, mythology and tradition. Paphos town is approx 20 minutes away and the picturesque village of Pissouri is approx 10 minutes away. This magnificent five-star resort is a haven for devotees of luxury and comfort and offers 290 guest rooms and suites. With unprecedented views and extensive facilities the Intercontinental Aphrodite Hills is a true first.

The Aphrodite Hills offers the tempting contrast of peace and tranquility combined with outstanding sports and leisure facilities. Residents and guests alike can enjoy world-class golf on the superb 18-hole championship course, a clubhouse, a well-stocked pro-shop, tennis courts, excellent fitness facilities and the sophisticated Retreat Spa with its Greco-Roman thermae. A mere 15 minutes drive away by complimentary shuttle bus, is the Zias Beach Club, with 1.7 km of sandy beach and offering free sun beds, umbrellas and towels for hotel guests; the relaxing Cove Beach and the Aphrodite's Riding Club with excellent horse-riding facilities. At the heart of the resort is the bustling Village Centre with its bars, restaurants and shops, plus a traditional chapel - the perfect setting for romantic weddings. For children and teenagers, there are also the Rainbow, Pegasus and Zeus Kids Clubs, a children's playground and fun Grotto Teens Club.

Gourmet fusion, Mediterranean and international cuisine plus fine dining are provided in a choice of three restaurants and poolside bistro. All rooms and suites have a balcony or terrace providing garden, pool, golf or sea views and each with special features and luxurious finishes that make it a pleasure to stay indoors. Each decorated with colour schemes that accentuate the morning and evening sun; all rooms are decorated to meet the style and comfort requirements of the most discerning guest. Landscaped gardens and a cascading swimming pool invite relaxation coupled with attentive yet shaded gazebo where wedding ceremonies can be conducted.
