Mount Olympus

27 Oct, Thur Oceania Resort

Early departure direct to Thessaloniki. Transfer to Oceania Club. Breakfast upon arrival. Rest of the day at leisure to enjoy this superb 5* resort. Enjoy lunch and dinner, including all drinks!

28 Oct, Fri Thessaloniki

Breakfast and optional full day excursion to the second largest city in Greece. This harbor city still has a wealth of surviving monuments and archaeological sites amongst the many modern shops, theatres and museums. Its famous landmark is the White Tower which stands like a sentinel on the beautiful café-lined promenade. Aristotle Square is a wonderful bustling plaza, a perfect place to sit back and watch the people go by over an excellent Greek coffee! Thessaloniki is an eclectic mix of old and new offering chic shopping and an energetic nightlife.

29 Oct, Sat Mount Olympus

Breakfast and an early start to the beautiful area of Mount Olympus, Greece's most prominent and famous landmark which according to Greek mythology is home to the 12 most important gods! An approximate 2 ½ hour drive will take us to the picturesque, traditional village of Litichoro, the starting point for many hikers wishing to climb to the peaks. We will walk along a gorge to view the magnificent scenery surrounding this area. After leaving Litichoro we will drive through winding mountain roads with more breathtaking vistas of Mount Olympus as well as the Olympic Riviera below to the pretty little village of Panteleimonas. Traditional tavernas are set in its narrow cobbled streets and little shops invite you in to browse their wares.

30 Oct, Sun Day at Leisure

Relax and enjoy the amenities of this fabulous resort or take a walk along the beachfront to the nearby village of Nea Moudania (shuttle service also available). Evening check-out of hotel to transfer to Thessaloniki for a FREE night tour. Transfer to airport, arrive Malta early hours – 31 Oct.

Nea Moudania

Thessaloniki City Breaks

Thessaloniki is an exciting city offering a wealth of history, arts, chic shopping, choice of dining & a vibrant nightlife. Visitors here will come across the fascinating history at virtually every corner all blended in with the 20th century architecture. The choice of dining is superb ranging from informal eateries hidden inside the covered market halls to fashionable gourmet restaurants on the waterfront. Socialising is the quintessence of Thessaloniki's lifestyle. The many cafés & bars, attractively lit 'Drink Boats' & clubs are all standard features that emphasise the reputation of Thessaloniki as the entertainment capital of Greece. Indeed the residents of this exhilarating city are the undisputed champions in enjoying life in a simple yet compelling manner!

Guests staying at city hotels in Thessaloniki may join the optional tour to Mt. Olympus. Pre-booking only.
